This One's for You!

Dear Mom and Dad:

Remember that day, years ago, when you took us by the hand and led us into that great building. Few of us realized that the steps we climbed that day could lead us to such memorable events. Now we have climbed these steps for the last time. The second flight looms before us.

As we recall the past, happy memories come to us; but none happier than our thoughts of you, Mom and Dad. You gave us the strength and courage to face the first flight of stairs.

Few of us can forget your love, guidance, and your patience. Without your help we could never have advanced this far in becoming good, useful citizens.

To show you in a small way our gratitude and appreciation we, the "Seniors of 85," Dedicate this the 1985 "This One's For You" to you, our parents.

Seniors of '85

For All
You Are

According to Webster's, a family is a group of people working together close in spirit. This clearly describes the students and faculty at Ord High.

Although every person has his or her place or role in the school, each is an individual with specific needs, wants, and dreams. Contributing to the school, expanding knowledge, and upholding the idea of unity among classes were a part of the individuals which made the school a whole. Leisure time was sacrificed by most students for the improvement of organizations and the betterment of team abilities.

Those who did not devote extra hours were few.

As the year progressed, a oneness in spirit was seen in school life. Lasting friendships developed between students by sharing responsibilities in activities which require cooperation. The idea of persevering through rough times was followed by all. Even though four football games resulted in losses, fan support never wavered.

And we really mean you!! If you've noticed, the yearbook has a whole new look this year — contemporary graphics, like script, lettering, grids, and the added colored senior pages found throughout the book. And that's not all, we've added a new section entitled 'Academics', to explain about the different classes offered at Ord High. We've also made extra efforts to personalize each seniors' yearbook by having their name monogrammed on the cover. Your name is on it to let you know that we wanted each Sr. to remember being a part of Ord High '85.

When most people mention A.I.A.S.A. a big question comes to mind as to "What does it mean?" It stands for The American Industrial Arts Students Association. This year the members were kept busy by making name tags statewide for the Pizza Hut restaurants. Another money making project that the AIASA members worked towards were raffling off wood projects during the halftime of winter sporting events. "For the number of students we had in the AIASA organization this year, we got a number of good things done," said the advisor, Mr. Koelling.

Ord Singers Perform at Cantata

The Ord Singers' major performance was the Cantata, an extended religious work. It was compiled of three parts, Man's view of Christmas, God's view of Christmas, and Our response. The Cantata was produced with a full orchestral tape accompaniment and was held at the Our Lady Of Perpetual Help Catholic Church. Oklahoma was a specialty at the Musicalia. All of the Ord Singers dressed in centennial clothing and performed to please the audience. Choreography was provided by Craig Ellingson and Kayla Peters.

The Task Force on Excellence in Education, consisting of twenty parents, students, teachers, and administrators, was formed and met for the first time Feb. 22, 1984. The formation of the Task Force was based upon the premise that the Ord Schools are sound, but not without room for improvement and issues should be addressed with an eye to the future with the challenge of providing our young people with high quality education. The Task Force was charged with studying and reviewing the current status of education in the Ord Schools with special emphasis at the high school level due to the makeup of the school involving graduation requirements, extra-curricular activities and interruptions to instructional time

An assessment was to be made as to how the "Reports of the Nation at Risk" and the "Governor's Task Force of Education" applies to the Ord Schools. The committee agreed to study four areas, namely, graduation requirements academic/extra-curricular balance and interruptions, curriculum and standards, learning climates, classroom management and time on task. The Task Force will make recommendations to the Board of Education in each area for their consideration for adoption, adoption with changes or rejection. At present the Task Force has made recommendations in the areas of graduation requirements and academic/extra-curricular balance

In attendance at a Task Force meeting were Dr. Gogan, Marvin Scheideler, John Hyde, Sandy Bartholomew, Lois Zlomke, Carol Keyser, Eldon Buoy, and Tom Wlaschin.

Wilma Erikson is the director of Library Science

Business Department

There has been a new advancement in the Business Department within the last couple years. Computers are always in demand. The Ord High system purchased four new computers this year which now adds to a total of eight. Classes involved with the computers include Word Processing, which is an independent course; Keyboarding a class offered for seventh graders, that advances and prepares

"I told you never to go beyond this much," says Mr. Bosworth that student for future typing classes, Office Procedures which involves word processing, office filing, and managing on the computer. Accounting is taught by Ed Bosworth and Dave Shrader. Mr. Huebner also teaches Computer Science and is also involved with the three classes in BASIC programming and PASCAL which is a correspondence course offered through the UN-L

Mr. Shrader watches over his student as she busily types in the information

"Why do you keep taking pictures of me?" asks Mr. Bosworth.

English Literature

Mr. Pallas helps Barry Geweke with his literature assignment. Chris Smedra, Anne Madsen, and Mary Bendykowski study hard.

Mr. Calleroz points to the right answer for Jerry Bruha. Carrie Sevenker is in the back.

Mrs. Berigan helps Jason Kounovsky with his assignment. Roxanne Kriewald, Jan Hornickel, and Jennifer Pelton look on.

The largest change in the English department was the addition of the weekly vocabulary unit. Mr. Pallas, a graduate of UN-L, taught his first year. His classes include teaching tenth and eleventh grades. The courses consist of reading short stories and novels, writing short essays, and grammar exercises.

Another scholar in the English department is Miss Freberg. She teaches grades 9-12. The course content for the freshman consists of writing, express thought, and literature. The juniors work with American Literature, and the senior course includes college writing and British Literature.

Mrs. Berigan teaches 7th and 8th grade English. Just like the other classes, the students learn to study vocabulary development, grammar, composition and literature.

Mr. Calleroz teaches the freshman class. The content of the class includes reading novels, paragraph writing, short stories, poetry, essays, and vocabulary. Mr. Calleroz is also the Spanish teacher for grades 9-12.

A m e r i c a n H i s t o r y

The senior Government class, taught by Mr. Machal, is offered for only one semester. In the class, students are made aware of their responsibilities as active citizens and to become involved in watching and reading the daily news. Students are quizzed weekly on the world's current news events. Students also have to write papers on a variety of government issues.

Mr. Machal lectures to his class during his Social Studies.

Mr. Hersh points to where the ancestors of his family came from.

American History, taught by Mr. Hersh, is a required class for Juniors. The objectives of this class are to give the students a basic understanding of our American Heritage and to relate past American History to present world happenings. Mr. Hersh also shows educational television programs and plays simulation games to improve students learning abilities.

Mr. Machal watches over his class as they read their assignment.

H O m e E c o n o m i c s

Busy working in the Adult Living class are Mrs. Wright, Mike Ryschon, Tammy Arnold, Sondra Loft and Bryan Foth

Mrs. Wright was awarded with the Distinguished Educators Award for our district. She teaches numerous classes that include Child Development, Teen Survival, Adult Living, and FHA.

Adult Living is a required course for the seniors, this year a new project was added which involved mock marriages. Couples had to face the problems that involved economic and socialistic affairs, that young people must face when they enter marriage.

Mrs. Johnson looks up as she hears the camera man say "smile."

Mrs. Johnson teaches Home Economics to the 7th and 8th grade students. The student is required to study nutrition, grooming skills, and basic knowledge of child care. In the 8th grade class, the student will acquire a basic knowledge of clothing care and repair. This course will also explore role identity role-modeling, and the various ways by which we communicate.

Mrs. Wright stands proud as she awaits for her class to arrive.

Fine Arts

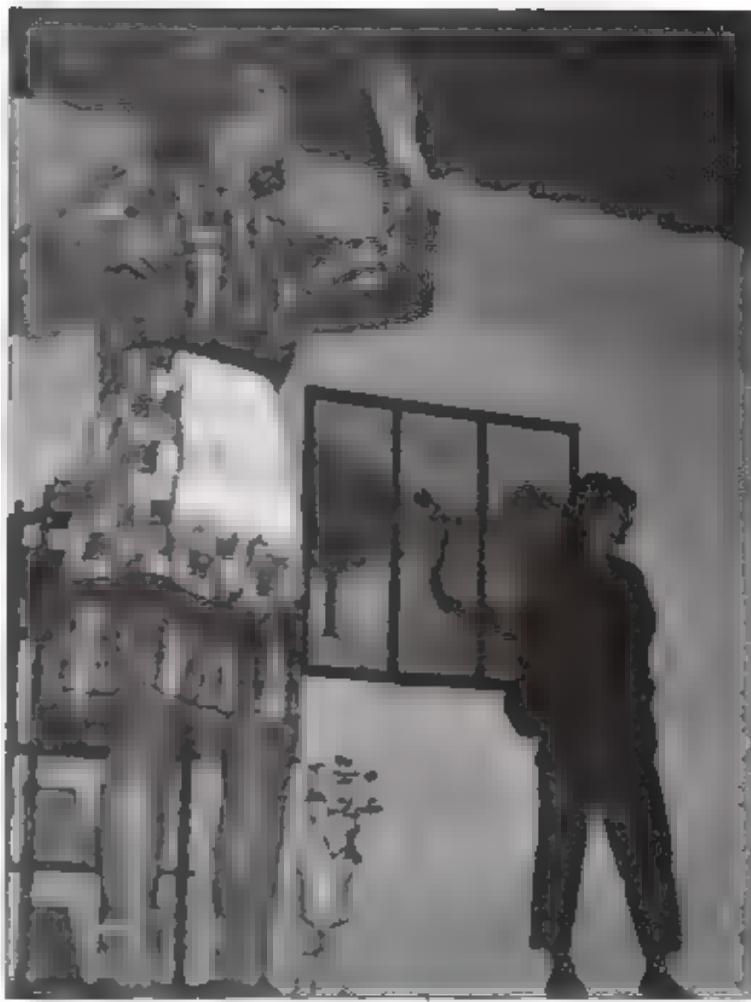

Concentrating on his drawing for Advanced Art is Senior Brian Arnold

Mr. Leo Lauver instructor for the Fine Arts department, says photography is becoming more and more popular in the art field. Student's learn to load, develop, and print film. Introductory Art is offered for the 7th and 8th graders. This class learns the basic skills of right mode, brain thinking, field perception, perspectives, and shading. The Advanced Art class works with right mode, field of depth, pottery, printmaking and watercolor. Drama and Speech are types of a Fine Art and these classes are taught by Miss Freberg

Mr. Leo, Cent Ellingson, and Jesse Nelson compromise on a decision.

Kerri Hackel and Pam Weems used their talents in Drama.

Can you figure out what this is?? Nope, It's called a photogram.

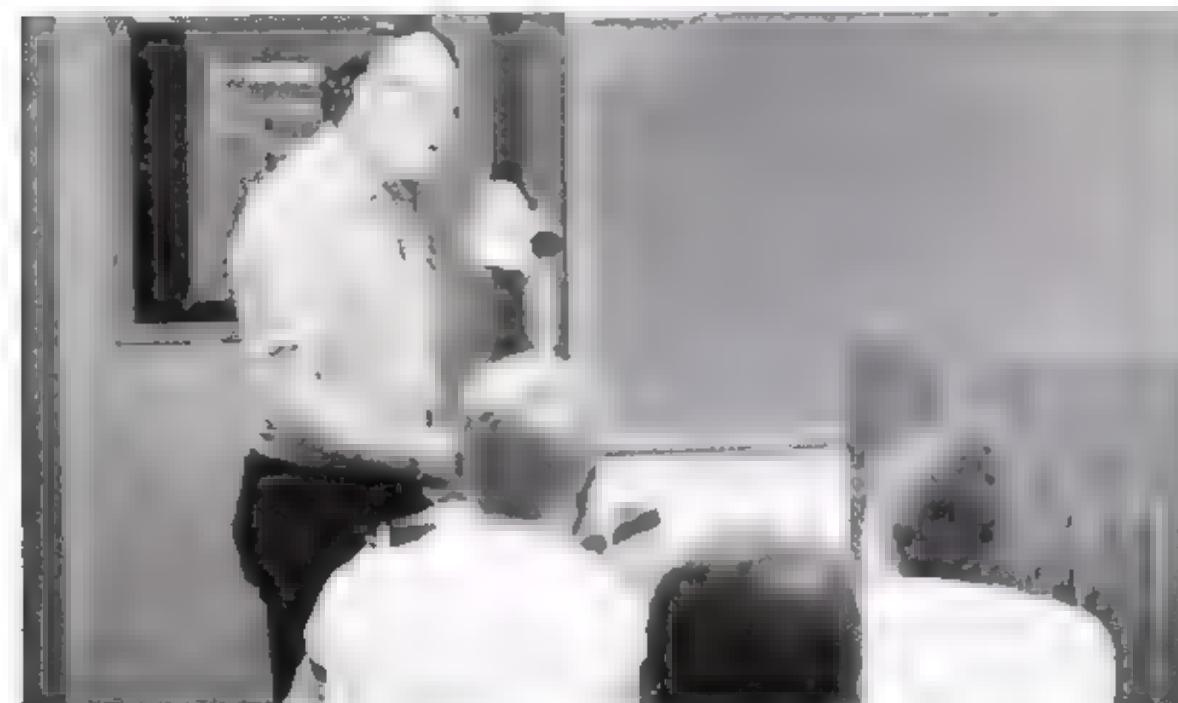

M a t h e m a t i c s

Mr. Williams shows Stacy Rice how to work one of her problems. Jason Kounovsky looks to see what's happening.

"I just don't seem to understand this problem in Math 4," Mrs. Bartholomew tries to explain to Kris McCain.

Mr. Huebner is usually found near his overhead projector when explaining Geometry and Algebra.

Mr. Williams is one of the three math teachers at O.H.S. He teaches 7th and 8th grade Math and Geometry. In 7th and 8th grade Math classes they do: problem solving, sentences, numeration numbers, reasoning geometry, measurements and graphs

Mr. Huebner teaches a wide selection of math classes which includes, Algebra II, Geometry, and Computer Science. These classes are introduced at 9th grade level and proceed through your Senior year. In Algebra students learn to solve variable expressions, and algebraic equations. Geometry students will study geometric properties of the physical world and the process of logic, reasoning, and proof. Upon completion of geometry, students will be able to use logical thinking and apply geometric properties to real situations in life

Mrs. Bartholomew's class schedule consist of Algebra I, Math IV Calculus, and Math 9. In Algebra I the students study variable expressions and learn to solve variable equations and algebraic equations. Her calculus class is made up of studying the concept of polynomial, logarithmic, exponential, and circular functions. In the Math 9 class they studied and reviewed basic operations for whole numbers fractions, decimal and percents along with studying applications of mathematics to everyday life.

Miss Johnson has been the music director at Ord for the past nine years. She prepares the vocal music students for all of the events such as the All School Variety Show, Fall Concert, Christmas Contata, and also works with the selected small groups that compete at contests in the Spring. Swing Singers is a group of select students who must have the ability to sing and dance in front of many audiences. The Swing Choir is a public relations group for the Ord High School. This year the Swing Singers added a new selection of Jazz and a Segment of the Beach Boys to their performances.

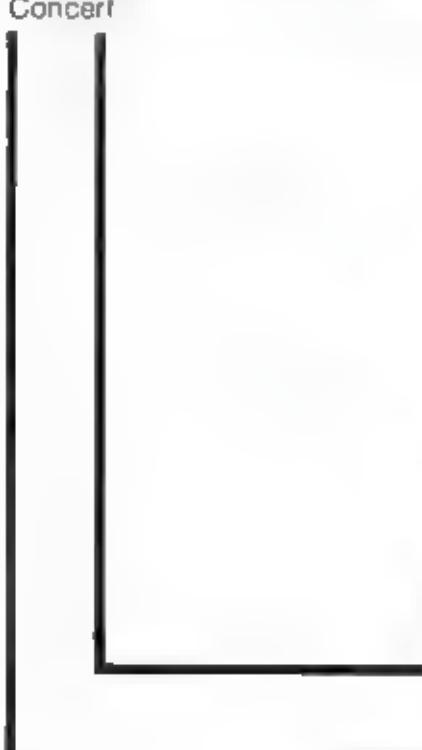

Miss Johnson sits to listen to her choir perform at the Christmas Concert

Mr. Niles has been the band teacher at Ord High School for three years. His main goal involves preparing his students for pep band and marching band, which perform at most of the athletic activities throughout the school year. In the Fall, the band travels to North Loup to march in the Popcorn Days parade. During the school year the members work hard at raising money for the trip to Kansas City. In the spring they attend the Worlds of Fun Festival of Events. To close out the year the band members hold a Spring concert which involves the junior and senior high students.

Science

Department

Mr. Carl Streeter gives Kim Mchalski an electrocardiogram tape and explains its purpose. Shana Leggett looks on.

Mr. Dave Huston tries to make the equations seem clearer as he discusses the problem with Mike Upah.

Mr. Streeter is the Biology and Physiology teacher at OHS. In the first semester, the biology students study living structures. The second semester consists of studying the most highly developed multicellular organism man.

In the Physiology class students go through detailed examinations of the systems of the human body. The class dissects cats to help learn the structures. A particular highlight of the class is a field trip to Kearney to see the cadaver lab and to tour the Good Samaritan Hospital. Mr. Huston teaches a wide selection of science classes which include Science 8, Chemistry, Advanced Chemistry, Business Math, and Physics. In these classes they perform many experiments. Mr. Bartholomew instructs the 7th and 9th grade science classes. They learn Physical and Life science, Genetics, and rocketry.

Busy trying to schedule his day is Arden Koeling

Dave Miller watches on as Mr. Ed Bruha tries to figure out the reason why the jeep won't start

The shop department offers many different classes. The classes consist of woods, and mechanical drawing, which are taught by Mr. Koeling. The woods class benefits the students in his knowledge of wood working. They learn how to use different types of tools and make projects, such as picture frames, gun cabinets, and other types of furniture.

In mechanical drawing, they learn how to use drafting equipment which enables them to read blue prints, technical drawing and parts drawing. As the year progresses, the students will work on their own set of house plans.

Another class in the shop department is power mechanics. Mr. Bruha is the teacher. The students learn the basics of a car. The first semester is spent in the classroom. During the second semester the students work in the shop.

Vocational Agriculture

Vocational Agriculture is taught by Mr. Andreesen. The class was organized to provide a basic knowledge of what agriculture is and why it is a vital industry in our society. There are different levels of the class. Vocational Agriculture I consists of careers in agriculture, animal science and other areas studied. Vocational Agriculture II is designed for sophomores which consists of pasture and range management, plant and soil science, along with animal nutrient. Vocational Agriculture III is offered to the Juniors and Seniors. This course content for this level consists of cover plants, soils, and animal science, analysis and evaluation of the supervised agricultural experience program, and insurance and tax management.

The Year of the Olympics

The Year of the Olympics was the theme for 1984-85. The homecoming festivities started with the students dressing up in formal wear, sweat suits, ties, inside-out clothing, and the usual red and white day. Students showed their enthusiasm and spirit by dressing accordingly. The Chanticleers defeated the Adam Central Patriots. Crowning of the King and Queen was held after the game at the Vet's Club due to the rainy weather. Kim Clement and Brian Meese were crowned by the reigning royalty of 1983-84, Kathleen Warner and Tad Melia. Later the Ord High Students enjoyed dancing to the music of "Inasense."

Showing off their most "formal" attire are seniors Kim Michalski, Jill Hurlbert, Kayla Peters, and Vicki Wagner.

Sophomore DeeLinn Goadsel expresses her "manly side" on Tie Day

Games Carry Tradition

Homecoming royalty of the 1984 year was King Brian Meese and Queen Kim Clement

Competing for the senior class is Vicky Wagner

Styling their ties are Jill Hurlbert and Christina Kasvi.

Wearing her prom formal is senior Kerni Hacke

1985 was a year that students learned that they could no longer rely on their parents for the extra money for the movie or for the gas needed for the car. Many people learned the responsibilities of having a part time job. Showing up on time, being dependable, and doing the best at whatever was expected of you. Jobs ranged from babysitting, farm work, food facilities, dental offices, and taking care of the elderly. Every job is very important because it prepares a person for the future. With the poor economy, jobs were a necessity for all.

One of the tasks of working in a dental office is typing a daily schedule. Typing on the computer is Kim Michalski.

Lesli Goodsell gets the milk for a malt that she will prepare.

Keeping busy at Misko's Sport and Western Shop is Dan Wadas.

A Night on the Town

Todd Fischer takes his dog for a walk in his spare time.

Buzzzzzzzzz, It's 3:00 and all the students head down the hallways, as they anxiously await for the events that take place after school. Whatever it may be, it's something that they enjoy. Some of the kids drive around and listen to their favorite rock group or head to the 'Pump' or 'Chant' to get the long awaited and craved Mountain Dew. Most of the time you can catch the people just being themselves and doing whatever makes them happy.

Looking their best on a Friday night is Craig Ellingson, Dahn Stowell, Christina Kasvi, Tom Kruml, and Dennis Schmitt

Mark Lewin and Kristina Knapp enjoy each others company as they drive around after a show

Smiling at the photographer is Craig Erikson and Steve Penas.

Seniors Host a Foreign Exchange Student

CHRISTINA MARIE KASVI

The unknown hand strikes another victim, Christina Kasvi

This year the senior class was fortunate to host a foreign exchange student. Her name was Christina Kasvi and her natural home is in Finland. Christina stated "This has been the shortest and best school year." She also learned what "American High School" is all about. She fell in love with the cornchips, nachos, cornbread, pumpkin pie, and pizza. She feels like she became a true Nebraskan cornfed girl! "I honestly believe that I made my best friends here and that's why leaving you was so difficult. I especially want to remember Kim, Scott, Tiffany, Dennis, Bruce, Dahn, and Kris for excepting me as an 'added sister' and helping me in different situations

Christina's address is.

Rallies Spark Spirit

Speaking at the Cross-Country pep rally is Mr. Cecetka, Kayla Peters, Christina Kasvi, Kim Michalski, Tom Smith, Dan Klimek, Jon Hurst, and Chris Kihs.

Mr. Steele discusses the prize for the SEXIEST LEGS contest

This past year was filled with a couple of pep rallies here and there. It was heard around the halls that it was because of the cheerleaders but actually they had nothing to say about the amount of time they received. The FHA pep rally finished off the FHA week of activities. Mr. Steele was awarded with the SEXIEST LEGS of OHS. Another pep rally was dedicated to the Cross-Country teams for making it to state for the first time ever. The Chamber of Commerce held one for the varsity girls' basketball team before they attended the state tournament. An assembly was held in the spring by Jim Post who talked about life in the prison.

Moment Captures Feeling

"Strolling Through The Park" was the theme for the 1985 Jr. Sr. Banquet/Prom. The juniors did an outstanding job of preparing for the evening. The tables were laced with floral candelabras and the dance floor was decorated with park scenery such as white lawn furniture, a stream, a horse and buggy, and a gazebo. The prom royalty was awarded to Tara Piskorski, princess, Tom Smith, prince, Stacie Dowse, queen, and Steve Penas, king. The guest speaker was Mr. Mark Pedersen who spoke about education and the importance of graduation.

Brian Goodsell Receives Outstanding Boy Award

The class awards night was held on May 26, 1985. The master of ceremonies was Doug Duda who gave the welcome and introduced the entertainment which was provided by the 18th Street Signers.

Outstanding senior boy and girl awards were given to Brian Goodsell and Kayla Peters. Valedictorian was Tammy Vancura and the Salutatorian was Dana Zlomke.

This year, Mr. Carl Streeter was the recipient of the Teacher of the Year award. He has been the Biology and Physiology teacher at Ord High for the past five years. Kayla Peters was awarded the choral award and the band award as being a fine musician. The Knights of Columbus Scholarship, Rikli Health Profession, and B.P.W.C. Scholarships were awarded to Kim Michalski.

The B.P.O.E. Scholarship was given to Mary Bruha and the Ord Education Association awarded Tony Quattrocchi and Linda Setlik with scholarships.

Other awards were given to Michelle Bonne, Kevin Bosworth, Teresa Bruha, Kim Clement, Brad Dowse, Stacie Dowse, Doug Duda, and Jill Hurlbert.

Receiving the Distinguished Educator Award is the Home Economics teacher, Mrs. Wright

Awarded with the Chanticleer emblem is Kevin Osentowski and Steve Penas.

A Long Awaited Day Arrives

85

Awaiting for the commencement exercises are a few of the graduating seniors of the class of 1985.

Marching into the gym on graduation are Kim Clement, Shala Cullers, Allen Vavra, and Lesli Goodsell.

"Time Brings Everything To Those Who Can Wait For It." This class motto will be meaningful for many seniors as they pursue new careers, jobs, and families. It means the seniors will strive for the best and eventually their goals will be met.

On May 26, 1985, 68 seniors received their diplomas from school board President Richard Krahulik.

The guest speaker for the afternoon was Pastor Jerry Petersen. He spoke on prospering and touched the minds of all. The 95th annual commencement and baccalaureate exercises concluded with the Rev. Don Studley giving the benediction. The Ord Singers sang "America The Beautiful" and "Just Be Who You Are" under the direction of Miss Dayle Johnson and Kayla Peters.

Harriers Hurry to State

Giving it all that they got are Craig Ellingson and Scott Clement at the Ord Invitational

The Ord Boys' and Girls' Varsity Cross Country Teams completed the most successful year in history by qualifying both teams for state. Some of the Boys' highlights included:

2nd Place in the District meet, 3rd place at Albion Invite, and 3rd place at the Ord Invite. Some of the Girls' highlights included: 2nd place at Districts, 1st place at the Aurora Invite, and 2nd place at the Central Conference meet. "The students provided us with tremendous team depth! They ran well except at the Gothenburg Invite and the State meet, which was held in Kearney. The state meet was a new experience for us. This was the first time we qualified in a number of years," said Coach Cecetka.

This was the first year Ord ever had a complete girls' team. Cross-Country involved a lot of hard work since the practices were long and tiring. For most of the runners it was a new experience. Kim Michalski earned two medals and Chris Kihs and Anita Wiemers each came home with one.

The 1984-85 Girls' Cross-Country Team consisted of Kim Michalski, Anita Wiemers, Kayla Peters, Chris Kihs, and Christina Kasvi. Mr. Rich Cecetka was the coach and Mr. Dave Huston was the Assistant Coach.

State... a Bump Away

The 1984-85 Varsity Volleyball team finished with a 12-5 record and placed three players on the All-conference team. Seniors Tammy Vancura, Dana Zlomke and Vicky Wagner were members of the All-Conference West Division team.

The Lady Chants were denied a trip to the State Tournament when they lost to Ainsworth in the district finals. "The seniors showed good leadership and worked hard and made the season very successful," said Coach Tom Pallas.

The 21 freshmen girls acquired the ability to work with teammates and learn the basic physical and thinking skills which lead to a successful season for the team. The freshmen volleyball team finished the season with a 2-4 record. The victories may not have been against their opponents but within themselves.

Each player was able to gain valuable experience through their opportunities to play. "Each girl had her own talent and together they made a team that was challenging and very fun to work with," commented Coach Kelly Clemens.

Both Teams Excel!!!

Both of the junior high Lady Chant volleyball teams experienced successful seasons. The seventh grade team finished with a 3-1 record and the eighth grade team with a 2-2 record.

The seventh grade team showed consistent improvement throughout the season and had a number of fine servers. The eighth grade team demonstrated very good skills in bumping and setting the ball. "I look for good things to happen to this group and there is a great deal of talent if these girls have the desire to work hard to better themselves," said Coach Jan Weber.

Under the direction of Clayton Steele, the reserve football team finished with a 3-3 record as they beat Albion, St. Paul, and Broken Bow.

The final game that they played was with O'Neill, which featured two overtimes and was very exciting for the players, coaches, and fans. "The reserves gained valuable experience with the reserve games, and this experience should pay off dividends as they move into varsity games next year and years following" said Coach Steele.

Freshmen Learn System

The Freshmen had a successful football season in 1984 under the mentorship of Coach Paul Machal. They worked very hard to improve the football technique. The Freshmen finished the season with a 2-1 record and played a 1-1 season in two combination games between the Freshmen and Sophomores.

"The year was spent learning the varsity system, and developing a strong running attack plus a better than average passing game;" said Coach Machal. The Freshman team will be something to watch in the future.

Although the 7th and 8th grade football players faced a whole new experience as playing for the Jr. High athletic team, many talents were found for future years. This was the first time that the players were given a chance to participate in an organized team sport. Each touchdown was a sure sign of improvement for the team individuals.

There were thirty-six who participated in the 1984-85 Junior High football team. With the help of Head Coach Lon Bartholomew and Assistant Coach Fred Williams, the team worked extremely hard throughout the season, and Mr. Bartholomew was very pleased with the overall effort of the team. They finished with a 2-3 season. "As the season progressed each player improved his skills, and the team became more competitive," said Bartholomew.

Seniors Highlight Season

"It was a disappointing year as far as overall results were concerned. Of the 19 squad members, approximately half of them were first year wrestlers and of those 19 there were only two seniors. The future definitely holds some hope," said Coach Shrader. The two seniors, Mike Kruml and Mike Sexson had good seasons. Mike Kruml had the best season of his career with a 17-9 record, and a position in the top 10 career pins list. At the conference tourney, Mike Sexson earned a 4th place medal after coming back from an injury.

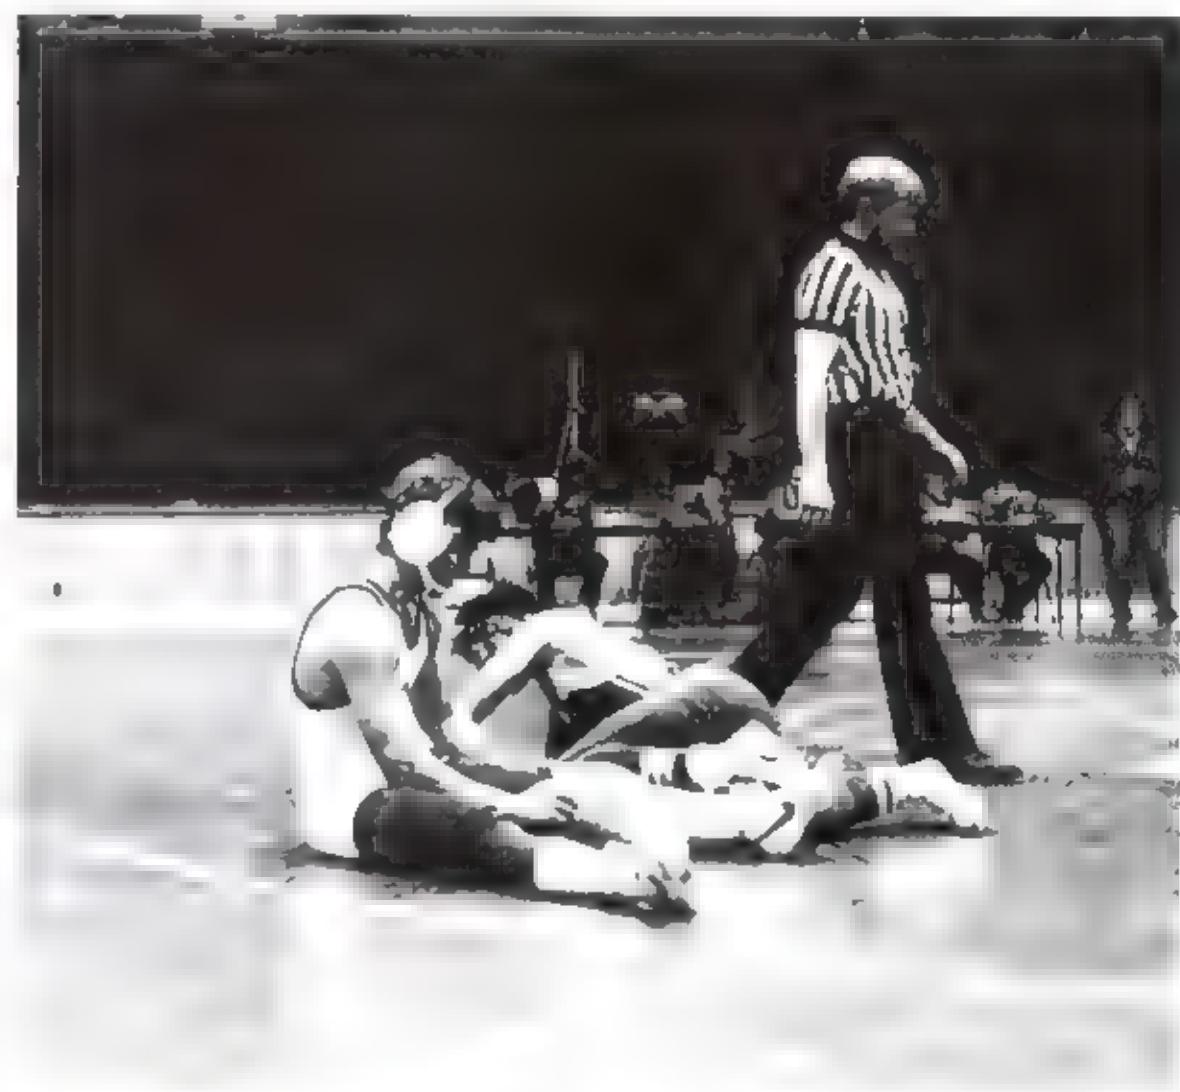

Two juniors added a lot of punch and they were C B Moudry and Tom Kruml. Moudry finished the season as the only state qualifier.

The junior varsity wrestlers had numerous opportunities to compete during the season. Besides wrestling in the dual meets, they also were involved in a number of junior varsity tournaments and quadrangulars. The team attended quadrangulars at Aurora and St. Paul. Tournaments were held at Spalding Academy and Broken Bow.

Members of the Jr. Varsity Team were: Dan Klimek, Joe Petersen, Joey Ptacnik, Bruce Schmitt, Joel Anderson, Russ Ostrander, Randy Ryschon, Sonny Plugge, and Tom Martens.

"The wrestlers were able to gain valuable "mat" experience by competing in a number of meets throughout the 1984-85 season," said Coach Streeter.

Wrestling for the Future

The Junior High Wrestling squad didn't have many wrestlers, but the ones we had showed great potential to do well in the future," said Coach Dave Connors. The team steadily improved during the season and receiving first place in the Conference Meet were: Randy Cullers, Brian Griffith, and Paul Young. The squad participated in the G.I. Central Catholic Invite, Burwell dual, B.B. dual, Albion dual, and Albion Invite.

Seniors Lead Team

The Ord Chants faced a tough schedule with a small team and little experience. The Seniors did a fine job leading the team in scoring and rebounding. Many underclassmen gained much experience that we hope will help them in the years to come. Seniors, Craig Erikson and Tony Quattrocchi led the Chants with 229 and 227 points respectfully for the season. Erikson and Quattrocchi also led the Chants with 38 and 30 assists. Senior Steve Penas and Junior Jeff Burton were the top rebounders for the year. The Chants ended their season with a 6-14 record.

Valuable Experience Gained

The reserve basketball team enjoyed the 1984-85 season. They worked hard, but it was "fun" work. Under the training of Coach Machal, they gained valuable experience, confidence in themselves, and a sense of teamwork. When the too-short season came to a close, their record stood at 5 wins and 9 losses. It was not the best record as wins go, but they had gained valuable experience for upcoming varsity years.

The 1984-85 freshmen boys' basketball team consisted of 9 players. The team stats were six wins and four losses. Mr. Bartholomew, the coach, commented that after dropping the first three games the team regrouped to play better as a unit and won five of the last six games. Mr. Bartholomew said, "I was pleased with the effort our team made to play better together in the latter half of the season and eventually won the championship at the VICA Tourney in Grand Island."

Teams Finish Undefeated!!

The 1984-85 7th and 8th Boys' Basketball teams were both undefeated with a record of 5 wins and 0 losses. The leading scorers for the 7th graders were Shawn Dowse and Steve David with 31 and 25 points respectively. The leading scores for the 8th graders were Brian Griffith and Chadd Murray with 68 and 46 points respectively. The Junior High girls' track team had a long and rainy season.

Through sweat and a few tears during competition, the teams' results were in the top three at each meet except the Loup City Invitational and Central Conference Meet. All twenty-three girls endured the season. Highlights included breaking the 2-mile relay record at Loup City. "The girls learned that track takes a lot of self-discipline and effort to help themselves and their teammates for the winning times and measurements at the meets," said Coach Clemens.

Two Qualify for State

The 1984-85 Varsity boys' track team was made up of 33 members. Danny Klimek and Tim Miller lead the team in scoring with 99 points and 68 points respectively. The 400 meter relay team consisting of Brian Sich, C. B. Moudry, Guy Pinkman, and Tim Miller broke the school record with a time of 45.9 seconds. In the state track meet Danny Klimek finished in 6th place in the 3200 meter run with a time of 9:54 and Tim Miller finished in 6th place in the 200 meter dash with a time of 23.64. "This was the most boys we have had out for track in a long time and we will have almost everyone returning next year which should give us good depth," commented Coach Cecetka.

Tracksters Set Relay Record

The 1984-85 Jr. High Boys' track team consisted of 15 boys. The team had six meets and competed at the Burwell Invitational where they placed fourth. At the Broken Bow Invitational the tracksters placed second. They defeated Albion in a dual. At the Loup City Invitational the 3200 meter relay set a new record of 9:41.49. Members of the relay team were Randy Cullers, Paul Young, Bob Miller, and Chadd Murray. Coach Huston stated, "Overall I felt we had a fairly successful season considering our small number of competitors."

The 1984-85 Golf Team consisted of 13 members. They reached the long awaited goal of winning the Ord Invitational which was held on a cold rainy day.

Coach Williams commented, "The team started off quite strong but due to illness, during the season things slowed down quite a bit."

Highlights of the season included a first place finish at the Ord Invite, third place at the Columbus Scotus Invite, and fifth place at the Aib on Invite.

Summeritis Hits All

As this year comes to a close, so does this yearbook. As you glance through the pages a lot of memories will be remembered and a few tears will be shed. Maybe it was a last game played or a last performance at a concert

Can you remember sitting in a hot room trying to concentrate on physiology or freezing in American History? Well, it all paid off in the end. There were a lot of times when you were tired of studying and felt like quitting and wished you could do some things over. Whatever it may be, I'm sure that being a student at Ord High will never be forgotten. For you the students, This One's For You!!!

Tammy,

We wish you the best in everything you do. Congratulations on all you have achieved

We love you

Mom, Dad, Loren, Cindy, Dean, and Debbie

Congratulations Paul

As you begin this new adventure in life, may you use this as your guide

"For this cause we do not cease to pray for you, and desire that you might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding

That you might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasure, being fruitful in every good work, increasing knowledge of God;

Strengthened with all might, according to His glorious power, unto all patience and long suffering with joyousness.

Giving thanks to the Father who has made us to be partakers of His inheritance."

Colossians 1:9-12

We love you and are proud of you

Love always,
Dad, Mom, and Karen

Tammy A

Today you'll start a new life
And you'll say your last goodbyes
To all the friends you've grown to love
With whom you've laughed and cried
Remembering the fun and laughter,
The problems and the fears,
And watching all your memories grow
Throughout your high school years
The memories of the dances
And the exams you'd rather forget.
Yes, high school days are precious
but brief.
Where all your dreams come true;
It is not the end, but the beginning
Of a life you'll start anew.

We love you and Congratulations,
Mom, Dad, and Tim

Michelle,

Congratulations! We wish you the best of luck in the future

All our love,

Dad, Mom, Marsha and Laura

Congratulations Brian Arnold

TAKE TIME FOR 10 THINGS

1 Take time to Work
it is the price of success

2 Take time to Think it is the source of power

3. Take time to Play
it is the secret of youth.

4. Take time to Read it is the foundation of knowledge

5 Take time to Worship
it is the highway of reverence

6 Take time to Help and Enjoy Friends
it is the source of Happiness.

7 Take time to Love
it is the one sacrament of life

8. Take time to Dream
it hitches the soul to the stars

9 Take time to Laugh
it is the singing that helps with life's loads

10 Take time to plan
it is the secret of being able to have time for the first nine things

We love you.
Mom, Dad, Christy, and Kim

Cori,

Congratulations to a wonderful daughter on accomplishing this most rewarding goal. You will be experiencing many great adventures as you journey down life's road and we wish you the very best. May God always bless you and guide you

Stacey,

COAST TO COAST

Well woman - what's it like to be a S.A. I guess we'll find out soon enough.
Well, I can't think of one place that all sides could get into. I'm going to say it's a good place to live. I met you in a limited area friend of mine. Keep up your good work & you'll be fine. Good luck to you & have fun but don't forget me. (I am a good friend.)

Stacey-

You are a lot of fun & a really sweet person to talk to & be with. CL would be close to hell without you. We'll have to give the ol "Head Cheerleader"
a hardass time & raise some Cain. I hope to see you at all the social gatherings young lady (Lord only knows when I'll be grounded!). Take care always!

Stacey,

Well chick we haven't really had any classes together but maybe this year. we've got to make it be the best.
It's our last year and I think we deserve to say
"Hell to the rest of the world."
Right? Be good and best of luck.

Love always,
Amy

Stacey,

Well time has went by so fast. I still can remember 8th grade so well. Now that we are seniors we have to look back and laugh. I will never forget the fun times (and the sad) but life goes on. And so do we good luck with your life. Thanks for being my friend.

hugs,

Sam Chioderos

Stacey,
To a sweet good looking girl who is fun to be around. But don't get to rowdy this year, it's you better have fun because it's your last. Never try to get me to dance in country again. Please!
Have fun in everything you do!
Chad Murray

Stacey, fun this year since I have fun this year here and its your last year here and good luck. Randy Cullers
